Women's Rehab

A Note from Nelson

Did you ever have a desire to do something really big for God? Like maybe going to Haiti or Africa and teaching people how to grow their own food, and thousands of lives could be saved? Or having $20,000 to be able to send to the missions of your own choosing? Maybe your childhood or teenage dreams consisted of something that would be really super to do.

In reality, while God can accept big attempts to do service for Him if done with the right attitudes, He really wants you to consider giving a cup of cold water to a child, visiting a sick person or someone in prison, providing clothing for someone who doesn't have enough to properly clothe himself, giving food to someone who is hungry, or treating an immigrant (stranger) kindly. Those acts of service are what God really wants you to consider. Read Matthew 25. If He were to call you to some great service that could reach the masses, great, but very probably not until you learned the blessing of doing small acts of service. Maybe you hope that you will be put under great trials during your service that will prove your devotion to God and man?

OFJ is an opportunity to do some small acts of kindness. Maybe not all the conditions are exactly like you would find on a youth trip. But my guess is that before God will consider a person for some great act of service, He will be looking for someone willing to give up his own comforts or rights while doing small acts of service. So if you want to serve, welcome to OFJ!

We are happy to welcome Leland Miller to the OFJ board. From Uniontown, OH, Leland has served at OFJ in the past, and we look forward to his help and input.

We have been discussing building a storage/garage facility. Those discussions are ongoing. God has blessed us with some funds, and we thank Him and our donors for that; we still will need more for whenever we feel the time is right. And again, thanks for considering the needs of OFJ by giving of yourself, your hard-earned money, and prayers! The directors and staff really would appreciate your prayers as we look to another 2 terms of OFJ in 2027, Lord willing.

God bless you for your generosity!

Thank You!

We are reminded again that this work is made possible by many willing hands and generous hearts. We are deeply thankful for the more than 100 volunteers who served onsite, the cooks and staff couples, the churches that supported OFJ through their offerings, and each individual who contributed financially. Every gift of time, service, prayer, and financial support has helped make the work projects in Mexico possible. Thank you for being a part of the work!
